A MESSAGE TO MY LOVED ONES

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call,
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that place at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things, I too, will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.

With lots of love...

Adel Cassandra Missick-Gibson

Mom your spirit live on in our hearts, from our lives you will never depart

HER ARRIVAL

Our queen, our sunshine in the rain and a woman who was like a precious gem, fearfully and wonderfully fashioned to bring joy, love and laughter to our home made her entrance into the world on Friday, March 1st, 1946 at 5:30am to the late proud parents Mr. Hilton Missick and Ms. Alberta Grant. Our late grandmother fell in love with her baby girl immediately as she was her first child. When her father saw her for the first time he was smitten although she was his fourth child; and in his great delight he exalted her as 'his royal highness his African Queen' and he named her Adel Cassandra Missick. This name would soon become synonymous with strength, humility and dedication to her family in the Missick household.

A TIME TO LEARN

At a tender age mummy received a strong foundation in education at the All Age School in Kew, now recognized as the Charles Hubert James Primary under the watchful eye of the late Charles Hubert James. She was a very keen student and a quick learner who excelled very well in Mathematics. She had a passion to learn as she was always eager to make her mother proud. In our childhood and during adolescence, some of our favorite pastimes was hearing mummy tell us stories of the late teacher James whom she was very fond of. She said that he would ask the class to repeat their two time tables and ask her not to say anything. However, because she loved Mathematics so much, she found this request impossible to carry out. Being the Adel we knew, she would often shout out the answers for her class mates. She laughed mischievously in reflecting on how she had tried teacher James patience so much in wanting to help her friends that she ended up getting a good licking one day from him. She said that this was her first and last time getting beating in school from teacher James. She learned a very important lesson that day about obeying those in authority over you and this was a lesson that she instilled in us just like the fear of God. After completing her primary education, mummy decided to discontinue her studies and began working on the farm along with her mother and other siblings as was customary in those days.

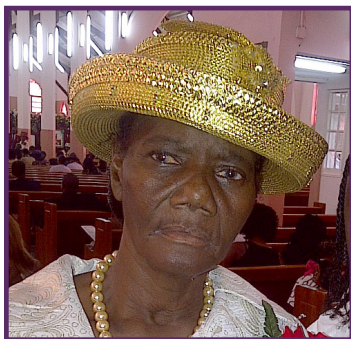

A TIME FOR SERVICE, WORK AND GIVING

Mummy was no stranger to hard work and she worked very hard from a very young age prior to and after giving birth to her children. She labored hard day and night to give her children the best education possible. She worked with the government program as a laborer at the Charles Hubert James Primary School for many years and she was awarded for her dedicated service to the institution in June 2001 under the principalship of Mrs. Darlene Lightbourne, former principal. Mummy provided service in this field until her retirement later on in 2001. Mummy believed that no matter how menial the task seemed she would do it to the best of her ability and in a spirit of excellence. This is an attitude that she did her best to instill in all of her children.

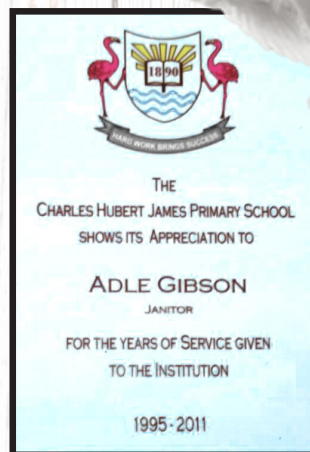

Mummy loved to give and she never allowed anyone who visited our home to leave empty handed. She was proud of the local crops that grew in our backyard and was always giving away sapodillas and sour sops. She was not a selfish person and she instilled in us children the statement 'God loves a cheerful giver'. Mummy gave unselfishly expecting nothing in return.

A TIME OF SPIRITUAL GROWTH

I believe that one of the things that we will remember most about mummy was her great love for her heavenly father. She was christened at the Church of God in Christ then known as South

Church by the late Bishop Simon Hall and then later with her mother and family she moved to the Church of God of Prophecy under the leadership of the Bishop Isaiah Whyns, Pastor Shedwick Handfield and Pastor Annie Williams all deceased and later Pastor Arthur Gardiner and now Pastor Oleta Missick, who currently serves as Pastor of the ministry. Going to church was ingrained in mummy's life and she often told us of how she had to attend Sunday school every Sunday morning and evening, "be it rain, snow or sunshine". Mummy had a great passion for worshipping and always desired to be closer to God. She believed in giving back to the church and giving God his due portion that he had blessed her with and was always faithful in paying her tithes even when she was unable to attend church.

Mummy loved the things of God and was a God fearing woman. She accepted the Lord as her personal Saviour at a young age. Even when the challenges of life caught up with her, because she was determined to live for Christ, she rededicated her life to God. I reflect on hearing mummy praying very early in the mornings calling all our names out to God. Sometimes she would not remember the names of all those she wished to specially pray for but she never failed to call out her children name and I would hear her shouting "Jesus, Jesus let your will be done". After mummy moved to Providenciales due to failing health, she worshipped with my family and I at the Church of God of Prophecy under the pastoral care of Bishop Wesley Missick for a period of four years until her passing. Mummy served in the Women's Missionary Band, the Usher Department and as Secretary in Victory Leaders Band (VLB) at her local church the Church of God of Prophecy in Kew, North Caicos for many years.

Adel's testimony was always: "I will never let the devil use me for parking ground", "Praise the Lord for my children and family", "I pray to the Lord that they get their souls saved".

Adel's favorite scripture versus: Romans 8:1, John 8:8, Ephesians 6:12, Psalms 116:15, Psalms 8:4-8 James 5:1-12, Matthew 5:35 and Proverbs 22:15.

Adel's favorite songs: Just a closer walk, I feel like traveling on, My hope is built on nothing less, My Jesus I love thee, Have thine own way lord, Victory in Jesus, I am glad I counted the cost and Highway to heaven.

Adel's favorite colours: Orange, Purple and Green

Adel's favorite TV Shows: Talk That, Wrestling, Sanford and Son and MacGyver

Adel made sure we were at a standstill not even a pin can drop while her movies or TV shows were in progress.

A TIME OF COURTSHIP AND MARRIAGE AND FAMILY

With mummy's warmth and kindness it was no surprise when she caught the eyes of the young, handsome and energetic gentleman by the name of Danziel Emmanuel Gibson. This courtship would usher a new beginning in mummy's life and she was smitten by his kindness and looked forward to starting a family with him. He said that when he saw mummy's beautiful smile, pretty long silky hair and her Coca-Cola body shape along with the fact that she was a church girl it sparked his interest even further. He desired a lady with a good personality, a love for God and a quiet demeanor all of which she possessed and he knew that she was the one for him. After years of courtship they united their lives together in holy matrimony on February 22, 1976 with the late Bishop Isaiah Whyns officiating and Mr. Walter Simmons and Perlene Gibson serving as witnesses.

Their union produced six children two of whom preceded her in death. The names given to these children were Kendrick, Dudley, Shandell, Shanderia, Kenton and Aushnell. Adel experienced her share of life's ups and downs, joy and sorrow however she remained committed to her marriage and honored her vows until death do us part. Prior to her marriage to Danziel, God saw fit to bless her with two beautiful girls Shirley 'Sharol' and Tamara 'Cammie' Missick both deceased and two handsome sons Stanley Clarke (deceased) and Dale Missick.

In all, mummy was blessed with ten children however God saw fit that she would raise seven of them to become Godly men and women in their respective communities and the Turks and Caicos Islands by extension. Mummy always believed in exhibiting a positive attitude and instilled the values of hard work, rewards, honesty, sincerity and integrity in her children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Mummy had no favorites among her children and loved each of us equally in her own special way. Mummy was over the moon or as she put it "on top of the world" when her oldest granddaughter Talestra Dixon the daughter of her late Cammie graduated from the Charles Hubert James Primary and later from the Raymond Gardiner High School as Salutatorian for the graduating class of 2014. She would exhibit such joy once more when her first great-granddaughter J'annah Gardiner came first in her class upon entering primary school. Mummy always loved to celebrate her children academic achievement and always gave God thanks for what He had done in the lives of her family. She always boasted about Sharol and I being her health protectors and that Don was her life saver and that Dale, Shandell and Dusty were her personal protectors.

We are so grateful that God allowed mummy to live to see her children achieve the following careers in their personal aspirations:

Shirley 'Sharol' Missick-Walkin (Deceased) Nurse
Tamara 'Cammie' Missick (Deceased) Waitress
Dale Missick – Security Officer
Dudley 'Don' Gibson- Electrician contractor
Shandell Gibson – Police Officer
Shanderia Gibson- Nurse
Aushnell 'Dusty' Gibson – Security Officer, Supervisor

CELEBRATING LIFE AND FAMILY

Mummy loved her family and always wanted to be at every function or celebration. She loved her siblings and showed love from her heart. She believed that as early as 5 o'clock in the morning she had to call them to say good morning and this action she did religiously. Mummy and her siblings were like an egg in a shell and when one was hurt everyone shared in the pain. Mummy was very strict but she disciplined in love she was never afraid of letting us know when we were going astray from the principles that she had done her best to instill in us. She believed in the word of correction as much as she loved celebrations and she surely administered it when necessary to family members when it was needed.

Mummy was the 'Boss Lady' for the family and being the oldest this was a title that she wore with pride and a great sense of responsibility. She would always let her other siblings know that she was the boss in charge and that she would have the last say whenever she was challenged by her oldest brother Walter. Mummy would state her piece and be done with it. She never engaged in idle conversations or encouraged sibling rivalry. All her nieces and nephews had a special love for her because they knew that once mummy was around they would be safe, loved and cared for. She wanted her nieces and nephews around all the time no matter how grown they are. Mummy also loved to spend quality time with her friends especially Ms. Essie Arthur and Emadle Lettice. For mummy's sixty six birthday we held a party in her honour. This was a joyous occasion for her and we continued this trend holding the most recent party for her seventieth birthday in March.

Mummy never missed an opportunity to celebrate with her family and friends and she saw no moment as being insignificant. Mummy loved to hear her nieces and nephews sing and she would sit quietly in a chair while tapping her feet and listening especially when Randy is playing his guitar or Bert, Rupert or Dedgrie is singing.

A TIME OF SICKNESS

As a family we were always accustomed to mummy enjoying good health. Therefore we became very alarmed when on June 30th, 2010 the day of her two daughters' birthday, mummy felt sick and had to be airlifted to Providenciales. After series of diagnostic testing she was admitted until July 3rd, 2010 to the Cheshire Hall Medical Center where she was diagnosed with Hypertension, Cardiomegaly and Asthma.

Following this, we realized that mummy was not the same strong woman that we had come to know and love. She experienced a lot of challenges but did not allow these health challenges to prevent her from performing her daily tasks and taking care of her family.

After mummy was readmitted to the Cheshire Hall Medical for a second time in December 2010, we decided that she should remain in Providenciales under the loving and watchful eyes of her children, so that she could be closely monitored and cared for. The decision was made to have her stay in my care along with my family much to the delight of my daughter Brentanae who mummy spoiled and loved unconditionally. Mummy longed for her home in Kew but accepted her new situation and comfortably made living with our family her new home. This was the one of the hardest decisions that she had to make, but we often allowed her to visit her beloved Kew with her last visit being in June of this year. Mummy spent four years and nine months with her baby girl and her family where she was surrounded by love and support of the other family members that would often come to visit and pray with her. She loved her cellular phone because it allowed her to remain in contact with those that she held dear to hear. She would often say "Come here one of you'll children go look see is you see my phone".

On September 7th, 2015 mummy and Shandell travelled to Nassau, Bahamas for diagnostic treatment at the Bahamas Heart Center under Dr. Francis (Cardiologist) only to hear a devastating diagnose of congestive heart failure, Cardiomegaly, Mitral Regurgitation and Dyslipidemia. We were devastated and this news was an unimaginable blow, but our mummy remained strong in her faith and guided by the hope that her God would deliver her. She told the doctors that she did not wish to do any surgery and that no knife would go on her body, and she stuck to those words. We honored mummy's request 100 percent and stood firmly by her side in prayer, hope and love.

A TIME TO FADE AWAY TO GLORY

Mummy endured crippling pains and it bled our hearts to see our beloved queen suffer in this manner. However, even though the pains were unbearable and she endured many sleepless nights mummy did not give up on God and continued to commit her life into her father's hands. On Friday September 10th, 2016 Shandell and I observed that there was a change in her behavior. We immediately informed her immediate family of this change. On Sunday morning we realized that she was not her usual self and we immediately took her to the hospital. Following a series of diagnostic testing, she was readmitted once again but little did we realize that this would be mummy's final admission. As I reflect on the night mummy left us to be with her heavenly father, I found comfort in the words of the hymn "Sweet Hour of Prayer" when the hymn writer coined these lines 'this robe of flesh I'll drop and rise to seize the everlasting prize'. On Monday night September 12, 2016 while surrounded by her beloved daughters, grandchildren and other family members who cared for her mummy was quietly dropping her earthly garments and putting on her heavenly clothing to leave behind this world of sorrow and pain. However, before she made her final move, she blessed her children and grandchildren reassuring us that she was going to be fine. She later spoke to her son Don and told him that she was fine as well. Her little grand Brentanae did what she would usually do which was praying for grandmother while I read a passage of scripture from Matthew chapter 4 to her and Shandell fed her.

In the quietness of the evening with the heavenly angels surrounding her bedside in that hospital room, surrounding by the love of her daughters and grandchildren and other family members our mother, grandmother, sister, aunt, cousin and friend slipped from time into eternity and closed her eyes in the peaceful sleep of death. "Oh come angels band, come and around me stand oh bear me away on your snowy wings to my eternal home". Adel Cassandra Missick traded her earthly body for a heavenly mansion.

*Oh what a sunrise it's going to be Death will lose it's the sting
The grave it's victory
The silence will be broken and the storm clouds rolled away
I hear the voice of angels singing on that homecoming day.*

SLEEP On Adel, Mummy, Sister, Grammy, Titter, Aunt, Cousin and Friend sleep on.

OPENING HYMN “Heaven’s Jubilee”

Seems that now I almost see all the sainted dead
Rising for that jubilee that is just ahead.
In the twinkling of an eye, changed with them to be,
All the living saints to fly to that jubilee.

Chorus

Oh, what singing, Oh, what shouting.
On that happy morning when we all shall rise.
O, what glory, Hallelujah!
When we meet our blessed Savior in the skies.

When with all the heav’nly host we begin to sing,
Singing in the Holy Ghost, how the heav’ns will ring.
Millions there will join the song, with them we shall be
Praising Christ thru ages long, heaven’s jubilee.

CONGREGATIONAL HYMN..... “It Is Well, With My Soul”

When peace, like a river, attendeth my way,
When sorrows like sea billows roll;
Whatever my lot, Thou has taught me to say,
It is well, it is well, with my soul.

Refrain

It is well, with my soul,
It is well, with my soul,
It is well, it is well, with my soul.

Though Satan should buffet, though trials should come,
Let this blest assurance control,
That Christ has regarded my helpless estate,
And hath shed His own blood for my soul.

My sin, oh, the bliss of this glorious thought!
My sin, not in part but the whole,
Is nailed to the cross, and I bear it no more,
Praise the Lord, praise the Lord, O my soul!

For me, be it Christ, be it Christ hence to live:
If Jordan above me shall roll,
No pang shall be mine, for in death as in life
Thou wilt whisper Thy peace to my soul.

But, Lord, 'tis for Thee, for Thy coming we wait,
The sky, not the grave, is our goal;
Oh trump of the angel! Oh voice of the Lord!
Blessèd hope, blessèd rest of my soul!

And Lord, haste the day when my faith shall be sight,
The clouds be rolled back as a scroll;
The trump shall resound, and the Lord shall descend,
Even so, it is well with my soul.

CLOSING HYMN "We'll Understand It Better By and By"

We are tossed and driven
On the restless sea of time;
Somber skies and howling tempests
Oft succeed a bright sunshine;
In the land of perfect day,
When the mists are rolled away,
We will understand it by and by

We are often destitute
of the things that life demands,
want of food and want of shelter,
thirsty hills and barren lands;
we are trusting in the Lord,
and according to His Word,
We will understand it better by and by.

Chorus:
By and by, when the morning comes,
When the saints of God are gathered home,
We will tell the story how we've overcome;
We will understand it better by and by.

Trials dark on ev'ry hand,
and we cannot understand
All the ways that God would lead us to that blessed Promised Land;
But He'll guide us with His eye,
and we'll follow till we die;
For we'll understand it better by and by.

Temptations, hidden snares often take us unawares.
And our hearts are made to bleed
for some thoughtless word or deed.
And we wonder why the test
when we try to do our best,
But we'll understand it better by and by.

OPENING REMARKS..... Bishop Wesly Missick

HYMN..... "It Is Finished"

There's a line that is drawn through the ages
On that line stands an old rugged cross
On that cross, a battle is raging
To gain a man's soul or it's loss

Chorus:

It is finished, the battle is over
It is finished, there'll be no more war
It is finished, the end of the conflict
It is finished and Jesus is Lord

On one side, march the forces of evil
All the demons, all the devils of hell
On the other, the angels of glory
And they meet on Golgotha's hill

The earth shakes with the force of the conflict
And the sun refuses to shine
For there hangs God's son, in the balance
And then through the darkness he cries

Yet in my heart, the battle was still raging
Not all prisoners of war had come home
These were battlefields of my own making
I didn't know that the war had been won

Oh, but then I heard the king of the ages
Had fought all the battles for me
And that victory was mine for the claiming
And now praise his name, I am free.

THE COMMITTAL

BENEDICTION

CONGREGATIONAL HYMN "No Tears In Heaven"

No tears in heaven no sorrows given
All will be glory in that land
There'll be no sadness all will be gladness
When we shall join that happy band.

Chorus:

No tears (in heaven bear) no tears (no tears up there)
Sorrow and pain will all have gone
No tears (in heaven bear) no tears (no tears up there)
No tears in heaven will be known.

Glory is waiting, waiting up yonder
Where we shall spend an endless day
There with our Savior we'll be forever
Where no more sorrow can dismay.

No tears (in heaven bear) no tears (no tears up there)
Sorrow and pain will all have gone
No tears (in heaven bear) no tears (no tears up there)
No tears in heaven will be known.

"UNTIL THEN"

My heart can sing when I pause to remember
A heartache here is but a stepping stone
Along a trail that's winding always upward,
This troubled world is not my final home.

Chorus

But until then my heart will go on singing,
Until then with joy I'll carry on,
Until the day my eyes behold the city,
Until the day God calls me home.

The things of earth will dim and lose their value
If we recall they're borrowed for awhile;
And things of earth that cause the heart to tremble,
Remembered there will only bring a smile.

But until then my heart will go on singing,
Until then with joy I'll carry on,
Until the day my eyes behold the city,
Until the day God calls me home.

This weary world with all its toil and struggle
May take its toll of misery and strife;
The soul of man is like a waiting falcon;
When it's released, it's destined for the skies.

But until then my heart will go on singing,
Until then with joy I'll carry on,
Until the day my eyes behold the city,
Until the day God calls me home.

"GLAD REUNION DAY"

There will be a happy meeting in heaven I know,
When we see the many loved ones we've known here below,
Gather on the blessed hill-tops with hearts all aglow.
That will be a glad reunion day.

Chorus:

Glad day, a wonderful day,
Glad day, a glorious day
There with all the holy angels and loved ones to stay,
That will be a glad reunion day.

There within the holy city we'll sing and rejoice,
Praising Christ the blessed Saviour with heart and with voice
Tell him how we came to love Him and make Him our choice.
That will be a glad reunion day.

When we live a million years in that wonderful place,
Basking in the love of Jesus, beholding His face.
It will seem but just a moment of praising His
That will be a glad reunion day.

As I knew her...

Mom always say no one knows her but only God above can judge her, Adel was a strong hard working mother with tough disciplinary style. The rod of correction was administered when necessary to every family member. Her children were well disciplined, she was a phenomenal loving woman who taught her children and family to love God and keep his commandments. Adel was a straight to the point person and told you to your face what was on her chest, then reply "do better am just telling you the truth and the best thing to do". She lived with her family members like egg in a shell, her daughters will remember her as a kind, loving mother who they would often run to for comfort whenever they were afraid or simply just needed someone to talk to. Adel loved to beat and would beat any child she found doing wrong.

Her sons will remember her as their backbone, their queen and comforter her family will remember her as their boss.

When I Lost You!

Wish I could see you one more time come walking through the door.
But I know that is impossible, I will never hear your voice anymore.

I know you can feel my tears and you don't want me to cry.

God my heart is broken because I can't understand why someone so precious had to die.

I pray that God would give us strength as
I struggle with this heartache that came when I lost you.

Your Grand and Great Grandchildren.

A Tribute to our Grandmother

When we think of all you've given us.

The values you've taught us.

The sacrifices you've made for us.

The confidence and security that comes from knowing we were loved.

We realized how much you've helped us to shape

Tributes...

My Mother, My Sweet Mother

My Mother oh my sweet sweet Mummy. You were and still is my hero, my chief example. I am grateful for the woman God had chosen to be my mother. You were really made in his image and created in his likeness. You were a mother full of humor, a one in a million. You were a woman who believed in God, and I am proud to be your daughter. I'm so lucky and blessed for having someone like you in my life. Thanks for teaching and bringing me up in the fear of God always saying "a family that prays together will stay together", you were my rock, my world, my energy booster, my everything, my inspiration the wind beneath my wings, always remember you were my number #1 fan, counselor and my coach while you cheered me on. You were not only my mother but also my best friend whom I shared everything with. You knew when I was hurt, sick or sad and you always found a way to cheer me up. You were my shoulder to lean on. Words can't describe what you were and how much you meant to me, you were my queen. One of the greatest gifts I've ever received from God and I called her my mother. Love you in a million ways. You were my #1 hero, a wonderful caring moral generous and compassionate beautiful soul. Your death left an empty space in my heart.

Love you Mom,
SHANDERIA GIBSON-ROBINSON

The Best Mother

Mom when we think of all you have given us, the values you taught us, the sacrifices you made for us, the confidence and security that comes from knowing we are loved. We realize how much you help us shape our lives into a happy and fulfilling one. We love you more than we ever said. You taught us never to give up on our dreams and live with the regret of not pursuing our dreams. Mom taught us never to quit in pursuit of higher knowledge and try not to make the same mistakes over and over again.

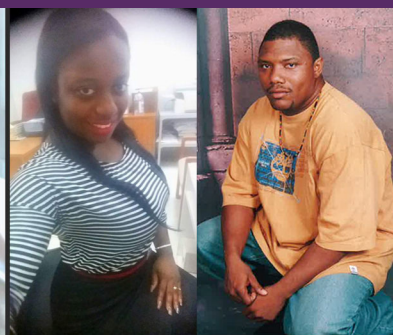

You're simply the best from your loving children.

Changed Your Address

You've changed your address to heaven
You've crossed the great divide
You know there's no sorrow or crying,
Because you've reached the other side
We know you are happy to be there,
For the Lord himself you can see.
You've changed your address to heaven,
And bid this world goodbye,
You now live forever with Jesus
In your new home in the sky
You have no burdens or heartaches
And from tears you are now free.
You've changed your address to heaven,
You're safe for evermore
For the Lord will a mansion
And your name is on the door.
We know you are walking together,
For where he is, you'll always be.
You've changed your address to heaven,
In that place we know you are free.

We love you,
Your Brothers and Sisters
