- OBITUARY -

Born in Bambarra, Middle Caicos the only African named settlement in The Turks and Caicos Islands, on May 7th 1943, 'Boy Hall' as he was affectionately called from childhood was the first child of his father, the late Emmanuel Coletta Hall Senior and the third child of his mother, the late Mariam Gertrude Forbes-Cartwright.

He spent most of his early childhood in Bambarra with his late grandmother, Patience Forbes.

As a child, he attended the local elementary school, did the usual chores of collecting fire wood, fetching water from the wells, working on the farms and going fishing along the bay on Saturdays. Fishing was his passion. At about 14 years old, he joined his father on the fishing banks getting conch. This was real hard work learning to skull the boat, knock, juk, slop, bruise and dry conchs and after all that labour back in the 60's, conch was only fetching $19 a-thousand in Haiti where his dad traded, bringing back assorted goods such as sodas, rum, plantains, bananas and other provisions.

After doing this for some time, he sailed to the Bahamas and settled on the island of Grand Bahama, where his mother had migrated and where he worked for a number of years. He held several different jobs but worked for many years at Bahamas Blenders as a truck driver and delivery man. He was hard working and very dependable.

Boy Hall was a quiet individual but not so quiet when it came to the ladies, as he fathered 13 children as you will hear of later.

He returned to The Turks and Caicos Islands in 1982 after 21 years in the Bahamas. One year later, he married the lovely Carol Manda Robinson of Middle Caicos. He worked in Grand Turk for a short period with the late Evan (Storm) Missick. Later he moved to Providenciales where he worked at Club Med and for a period fished for conchs and lobsters before establishing Boy Hall's Taxi. He provided both friendly and reliable service.

As an individual, Boy Hall was very friendly and Jovial. He loved playing dominoes and many evenings, he, along with, Barat Charles and the boys would be slamming dominoes at Doreen's North Side, Caicos Lodge and Buggies. Well, that is to be no more. He is gone, gone gone.

Boy Hall's health took a turn when he was diagnosed with Deodenal Cancer in June 20018. He took chemotherapy and was well, until October of this year when he found out that the cancer had returned. Despite a major surgery in the Cayman Islands, his health didn't improve. He died peacefully on November 30th, 2019 at 10:17pm. May his soul rest in peace and rise in glory.

PROCESSION OF THE FAMILY

OPENING REMARKSPastor Derek Hamilton

OPENING HYMN.....“Blessed Assurance”

Blessed assurance, Jesus is mine;
Oh, what a foretaste of glory divine!
Heir of salvation, purchase of God,
Born of His Spirit, washed in His blood.

Perfect submission, perfect delight,
Visions of rapture now burst on my sight;
Angels descending, bring from above
Echoes of mercy, whispers of love.

Chorus:

This is my story, this is my song,
Praising my Savior all the day long.
This is my story, this is my song,
Praising my Savior all the day long.

Perfect submission, all is at rest,
I in my Savior am happy and blest;
Watching and waiting, looking above,
Filled with His goodness, lost in His love

CONGREGATIONAL HYMN“Precious Memories”

Precious mem’ries, unseen angels
Sent from somewhere to my soul;
How they linger, ever near me,
And the sacred past unfold.

Chorus

Precious mem’ries, how they linger,
How they ever flood my soul,
In the stillness of the midnight,
Precious, sacred scenes unfold.

Precious father, loving mother,
Fly across the lonely years;
And old home scenes of my childhood,
In fond memory appear.

In the stillness of the midnight,
Echoes from the past I hear;
Old time singing, gladness bringing,
From that lovely land somewhere.

As I travel on life's pathway,
Know not what the years may hold;
As I ponder, hope grows fonder,
Precious mem'ries flood my soul.

RECESSIONAL HYMN“City of Gold”

There's a city that looks o'er the valley of death,
And the glories can never be told;
There the sun never sets, and the leaves never fade,
In that beautiful city of gold.

Refrain

There the sun never sets, and the leaves never fade;
And the eyes of the faithful our Savior behold,
In that beautiful city of gold.

There the King, our Redeemer, the Lord Whom we love,
All the faithful with rapture behold;
There the righteous forever shall shine as the stars,
In that beautiful city of gold.

Every soul we have led to the foot of the cross,
Every lamb we have brought to the fold,
Shall be kept as bright jewels our crown to adorn,
In that beautiful city of gold.

OPENING SENTENCE Pastor Derek Hamilton

HYMN “Glad Reunion Day”

There will be a happy meeting in heaven I know,
When we see the many loved ones we’ve known here below;
Gather on the blessed hilltops with hearts all aglow,
That will be a glad reunion day.

Chorus
Glad day, a wonderful day,
Glad day, a glorious day,
There with all the holy angels and loved ones to stay,
That will be a glad reunion day.

There within the holy city we’ll sing and rejoice,
Praising Christ the blessed Savior with heart and with voice;
Tell Him how we came to love Him and make Him our choice,
That will be a glad reunion day.

When we live a million years in that wonderful place,
Basking in the love of Jesus, beholding His face,
It will seem but just a moment of praising His grace,
That will be a glad reunion day.

PRAYER Pastor Derek Hamilton

COMMITTAL Pastor Derek Hamilton

HYMN “When We All Get To Heaven”

Sing the wondrous love of Jesus,
Sing His mercy and His grace.
In the mansions bright and blessed
He’ll prepare for us a place.

Let us then be true and faithful,
Trusting, serving every day;
Just one glimpse of Him in glory
Will the toils of life repay.

Refrain
When we all get to Heaven,
What a day of rejoicing that will be!
When we all see Jesus,
We’ll sing and shout the victory!

While we walk the pilgrim pathway,
Clouds will overspread the sky;
But when travelling days are over,
Not a shadow, not a sigh.

Onward to the prize before us!
Soon His beauty we’ll behold;
Soon the pearly gates will open;
We shall tread the streets of gold.

- In loving Memory - of you DAD

You held my hand when I was small
You caught me when I fell,
The hero of my childhood
and of latter years as well.

Every time I think of you
My heart just fills with pride,
And though I'll always miss you, Dad,
I know you're by my side.

In laughter and in sorrow
In sunshine and in rain,
I know you're watching over me
Until we meet again.

- An Eternal Memory -
Until We Meet Again

Those special memories of you will always bring a smile
if only I could have you back for just a little while
Then we could sit and talk again
just like we used to do you always meant so very much and always will do too
The fact that you're no longer here will always cause me pain
but you're forever in my heart
until we meet again.

- Look For Me In Rainbows -

Time for me to go now, I won't say goodbye;
Look for me in rainbows, way up in the sky.
In the morning sunrise when all the world is new,
Just look for me and love.

Time for em to go now, I won't say goodbye;
Look for me in rainbows, high up in the sky.
In the evening sunset,
when all the world is through,
Just look for me and love me
and I'll be close to you.

It won't be forever, the day will come and then My loving arms will hold you,
when we meet again.

Time for us to part now, we won't say goodbye;
Look for me in rainbows, shining in the sky.
Every waking moment and all your whole life through
Just look for me and love me,
as you know I loved you.

Just wish me near to you,
And I'll be there with you.

From: Your Loving Wife

To Our Grandfather...

Throughout the years
you've always been
A wonderful man to me
When I was small you took the time to Bounce me on your knee
As I grew older, you were there
I only had to call
I knew that I could count on you
You'd never let me fall
So many hard times in my life
You've helped to Get me through
I'm so glad God gave me
A Grandfather
As special as you.
