- OBITUARY -

August 6th, 1943 was a glorious day in the district of Bottle Creek, North Caicos for the late Rhoda and James Jolly. For on this day, their bouncing baby boy was born. They named him Hudson Watson Jolly, but was affectionately called Watson. He was the second of three children born to this Union.

Hudson attended the All Age Primary School in Bottle Creek where he excelled as much as possible. The opportunities to further educational advancement was very limited during Watson's teenage years, but he was always ambitious, and the value of honest hard work was instilled in him from an early age by his parents and grandparents. Equip with this value, he pursued fishing and carpentry and used his skills in these areas to provide for his family later on.

Watson sailed to Haiti several times with his grandfather Marceline Jones trading seafood, but this career was shorted lived when all members of the crew came back very ill after one of their trips. Shortly after Hurricane Donna, he migrated to Nassau, Bahamas in search of gainful employment. During his time in Nassau, he fathered; two sons Ricardo and Calvin. Afterwards he moved to Grand Bahama where he met Myrtle Forbes and her son Arlington. He fell in love with the lovely Myrtle and was married soon after. Their union produced seven children; Garnet, Audrey, Pamelar, Watson Jr, Orlane, Newton and Malinda.

During his time spent in the Bahamas, he worked in the construction field, and helped his father to build boats. During his tenure in Grand Bahama, He was always reminding people that Turks & Caicos Islanders help build Grand Bahama. Eventually Watson recognized that it was time for him to relocate to his beloved Turks & Caicos Islands and do his part in helping to build his own country. In December 1976, he uprooted his family and relocated to Bottle Creek.

The community of Bottle Creek knew Watson as a stern no nonsense person, he was respected by his peers and feared by the younger generation. Watson was often described as a very meticulous person, who took pride in everything that he did, even raising his first granddaughter Kenya, she was his pride and joy and they developed a very close bond which lasted until his death.

After returning to the Turks and Caicos Islands, Watson did construction, diving and fishing in order to provide for his family. He loved doing these three trades and he saw the need to teach and pass on those skills to a few of the young man in the community as well as his son Watson Junior. After his retirement, Watson dedicated his time to the nourishing of his heart string-Kenya, while her mother was pursuing her nursing degree in Jamaica.

Watson was very proud of his children's accomplishments, and wanted nothing but the best for them. Being the disciplinarian that he was, he raised them with strike stick, while at the same time allowed them to be kids. In addition, attending church and visiting family members was a requirement for all of them and it was a small joy the family looked forward to.

In 2013 Watson's health started to decline, therefore, his children decided that it was time for him to leave his beloved home in Bottle Creek, North Caicos and move to Providenciales with his family. During his time here in Provo, he spent a great amount of time with his son Watson Jr and as a result developed a close relationship with Watson Junior's children, especially Ebony.

After hurricane Irma, Watson lived with Kenya and she ensured that he was well taken care of and provided him with everything he needed. Their favorite pass time were going for car rides and visiting the barber shop. He also frequently enjoyed visits to the spa where he was affectionally called "Daddy" by the spa therapists. Needless to say, he was comfortable and lived his life well.

In October 2018 he was hospitalized and remain there for further medical care. On the morning of January 11th, 2020, he experienced difficulties breathing and shortly thereafter, he was called home.

PROCESSION OF FAMILY

OPENING HYMN“When We All Get To Heaven”

Sing the wondrous love of Jesus,
Sing His mercy and His grace.
In the mansions bright and blessed
He'll prepare for us a place.

Refrain

When we all get to Heaven,
What a day of rejoicing that will be!
When we all see Jesus,
We'll sing and shout the victory!

While we walk the pilgrim pathway,
Clouds will overspread the sky;
But when travelling days are over,
Not a shadow, not a sigh.

Let us then be true and faithful,
Trusting, serving every day;
Just one glimpse of Him in glory
Will the toils of life repay.

Onward to the prize before us!
Soon His beauty we'll behold;
Soon the pearly gates will open;
We shall tread the streets of gold.

RECESSIONAL HYMN“It Is Well, With My Soul”

When peace, like a river, attendeth my way,
When sorrows like sea billows roll;
Whatever my lot, Thou hast taught me to say,
It is well, it is well with my soul.

Refrain:
It is well with my soul,
It is well, it is well with my soul.

Though Satan should buffet, though trials should come,
Let this blest assurance control,
That Christ hath regarded my helpless estate,
And hath shed His own blood for my soul.

My sin—oh, the bliss of this glorious thought!—
My sin, not in part but the whole,
Is nailed to the cross, and I bear it no more,
Praise the Lord, praise the Lord, O my soul!

For me, be it Christ, be it Christ hence to live:
If Jordan above me shall roll,
No pang shall be mine, for in death as in life
Thou wilt whisper Thy peace to my soul.

But, Lord, 'tis for Thee, for Thy coming we wait,
The sky, not the grave, is our goal;
Oh, trump of the angel! Oh, voice of the Lord!
Blessed hope, blessed rest of my soul!

And Lord, haste the day when the faith shall be sight,
The clouds be rolled back as a scroll;
The trump shall resound, and the Lord shall descend,
Even so, it is well with my soul.

PRAYER..... Bishop Wesley Missick

"I SHALL KNOW HIM"

When my life work is ended, and I cross the swelling tide.
When the bright end glorious morning shall see;
I shall know my redeemer when I reach the other side,
And His smile will be the first to welcome me.

Chorus:

I shall know Him, I shall know Him ,
As redeem'd by His side I shall stand,
I shall know, I shall know Him,
By the print of the nails in His hand.

Oh the soul-thrilling rapture when I view His blessed face,
And the lustre of His kindly beaming eye;
How my full heart will praise Him for the merry, love and grace,
That prepares me for a mansion in the sky.

Oh, the dear ones in glory, how they beckon me to come,
And our parting at the river I recall:
To the sweet vales of Eden they will sing my welcome home,
But I long to meet my Saviour first of all.

Thro' the gates to the city in a robe of spotless white,
He will lead me where no tears shall ever fall
In the glad song of ages I shall mingle with delight,
But I long to meet my Saviour first of all.

"FACE TO FACE"

Face to face with Christ, my Savior,
Face to face—what will it be,
When with rapture I behold Him,
Jesus Christ who died for me?

Refrain:

Face to face I shall behold Him,
Far beyond the starry sky;
Face to face in all His glory,
I shall see Him by and by!

Only faintly now I see Him,
With the darkened veil between,
But a blessed day is coming,
When His glory shall be seen.

What rejoicing in His presence,
When are banished grief and pain;
Death is swallowed up in vict'ry,
And the dark things shall be plain.

Face to face—oh, blissful moment!
Face to face—to see and know;
Face to face with my Redeemer,
Jesus Christ who loves me so.

"WHEN THE ROLL IS CALLED UP YONDER"

When the trumpet of the Lord shall sound, and time shall be no more,
And the morning breaks, eternal, bright and fair;
When the saved of earth shall gather over on the other shore,
And the roll is called up yonder, I'll be there.

Refrain

*When the roll, is called up yon-der,
When the roll, is called up yon-der,
When the roll, is called up yon-der,
When the roll is called up yonder I'll be there.*

On that bright and cloudless morning when the dead in Christ shall rise,
And the glory of His resurrection share;
When His chosen ones shall gather to their home beyond the skies,
And the roll is called up yonder, I'll be there.

Let us labor for the Master from the dawn till setting sun,
Let us talk of all His wondrous love and care;
Then when all of life is over, and our work on earth is done,
And the roll is called up yonder, I'll be there.
