Recessional Hymn

There's a line that is drawn through the ages
On that line stands that old rugged cross
On that cross a battle is raging
For the gain of a man's soul or it's loss

On one side, march the forces of evil
All the demons and all the devils of hell
On the other the angels of glory
And they meet on Golgotha's hill

The earth shakes with the force of the conflict
And the sun refuses to shine
There hangs God's son in the balance
And then through the darkness he cries

It is finished, the battle is over
It is finished, there'll be no more war
It is finished, the end of the conflict

Rev. Goldstone Williams

"When We All Get to Heaven"

Let us then be true and faithful,
Trusting, serving ey'ry day;
Just one glimpse of Him in glory
Will the toils of life repay. [Refrain]

Onward to the prize before us!
Soon His beauty we'll behold;
Soon the pearly gates will open-
We shall tread the streets of gold. [Refrain]

"It Is Finished"

Yet in my heart the battle was raging
Not all prisoners of war have come home
These were battlefields of my own making
I didn't know that the war had been won

Then I heard that the king of the ages
Had fought all my battles for me
And victory, victory was mine for the claiming
And now praise his name, I am free

It is finished, the battle is over
It is finished, there'll be no more war
It is finished, the end of the conflict
It is finished, and Jesus is Lord (Jesus is Lord)

It is finished, and Jesus is Lord
Jesus is Lord

As I Knew Her

In loving Memory of Haslyn Kathleen Forbes

"I looked for the day when suffering and pain would end, and the Lord will say, 'I love you, sister,' The lame will walk, the blind will see, and Jesus, my Saviour, will welcome me home."

Haslyn Kathleen Forbes was born on August 8th, 1934, in Bambarra, Middle Caicos, to her parents Thomas Alexander Forbes and Julia Dean Forbes. She was the beloved mother of two sons and one daughter. Haslyn attended the all-age in Bambarra, where she spent her childhood.

Sister Haslyn later moved to Conch Bar, where she became a faithful member of Mt. Moriah Baptist Church, serving under the Pastoral care of Rev. Dr. Goldston Williams, Rev. Oral Campbell of Jamaica and briefly with Pastor Evan Williams.

Known for her love of singing, Sister Haslyn's favorite hymn was from page 578 of the sankey hymnal, "I would have the Saviour with me." She cherished her family and took great care of many of her grandchildren while living Conch Bar.

In her later years, Sister Haslyn relocated to Providenciales to live with her son, Royalton, and his family. On Friday, September 13, 2024. She was called home to be with her Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ. She has now journeyed to a place where sorrow and pain have ceased.

Sleep on, dear mother, grandmother, and friend. Though we love you deeply, Jesus loves you best. Rest in peace, Sister Haslyn, until we meet again.

Obituary

On August 8th, 1934, on the serene Island of Bambarra, Middle Caicos, a beautiful baby girl was born to Thomas Alexander Forbes and Julia Dean Forbes. They lovingly named her Haslyn Kathleen Forbes, the fourth of their eight children. When Haslyn was still young, her father left for the Bahamas in search of a better life for his family, but he never returned. This left her mother, Julia to raise Haslyn and her siblings on her own. The family then moved to Conch Bar.

Haslyn grew into a strong resilient woman, embracing the values of hard work, faith and love that her mother instilled in her. She lived a life of simplicity, preferring the quiet of Middle Caicos over the hustle of city life.

Haslyn was deeply rooted in tradition and believed in doing things the old school way, which she passed on to her children and grand children. She found joy in the things that truly matter, gospel music which she loved listening to on the radio and television, attending church regularly, and spending time in the fields.

Haslyn attended the All-Age School in Bambarra, Middle Caicos. She enjoyed going to school and was an ardent learner. She played a leadership role in all aspects of her school work and other activities. She was an independent thinker and performed tremendously well at school.

Known for her firm but loving nature. Haslyn raised her family with discipline, kindness and an unwavering sense of duty. She was a devoted mother to three cherished children, one predeceased her. She was a grandmother and a great-grandmother, always radiating warmth and generosity to all who knew her.

Later in life, Haslyn met and married the late Mr. Richard Harvey. After his passing, she continued to live in Conch Bar, Middle Caicos and would visit her family in Providenciales from time to time. In 2017 her health began to fail, and she was relocated to Providenciales to live with her son, where she remained until her peaceful passing on Friday, September 13, 2024.

My Mother

Tenacious

Haslyn was strong in her Christian faith and attended church regularly. She had strong principles and continued to cling to her core beliefs and principles. She was not someone you could convince so easily, or change her established position, or opinions.

Persistent

Haslyn was persistent in instilling in her children strong values. She continued to pursue the things that are right and fair towards her fellow-men. She exercised good judgement throughout life firmly and steadfastly despite the many obstacles.

Resilient

Haslyn always had the ability to recover from difficult circumstances, even illness. She was like the property of a material that enable it to regain its original shape after being bent, stretched, or compressed.

My Mother always instilled in her children the mentality of independence and self pride. And never allow adverse circumstances to define you.

Still I Rise

BY MAYA ANGELOU

You may write me down in history
With your bitter, twisted lies,
You may trod me in the very dirt
But still, like dust, I'LL rise.

Does my sassiness upset you?
Why are you beset with gloom?
Cause I walk like I've got oil wells
Pumping in my living room.

Just like moons and like suns,
With the certainty of tides,
Just like hopes springing high,
Still I'LL rise.

Did you want to see me broken?
Bowed head and lowered eyes?
Shoulders falling down like teardrops,
Weakened by my soulful cries.

You may shoot me with your words,
You may cut me with your eyes,
You may kill me with your hatefulness.
But still, like air, I'LL rise.

Out of the huts of history's shame
I rise
Up from a past that's rooted in pain
I rise
I'm a black ocean, leaping and wide,
Welling and swelling I bear in the tide.

Leaving behind nights of terror and fear
I rise

Graveside Hymns

"It Is Well"

When peace, like a river, attendeth my way,
When sorrows like sea billows roll;
Whatever my lot, Thou has taught me to say,
It is well, it is well, with my soul.

REFRAIN:

It is well, with my soul,
It is well, with my soul,
It is well, it is well, with my soul.

Though Satan should buffet, though trials should come,
Let this blest assurance control,
That Christ has regarded my helpless estate,
And hath shed His own blood for my soul.

My sin, oh, the bliss of this glorious thought!
My sin, not in part but the whole,
Is nailed to the cross, and I bear it no more,
Praise the Lord, praise the Lord, O my soul!

"Glad Reunion Day"

There will be a happy meeting in heaven I know,
When we see the many loved ones we've known here below;
Gather on the blessed hilltops with hearts all aglow,
That will be a glad reunion day.

REFRAIN:

Glad (That will be a happy day) day, Yes, a wonderful day,
Glad (That will be a happy day) day, Yes, a glorious day,
There with all the holy angels and loved ones to stay,
That will be a glad reunion day.

There within the holy city we'll sing and rejoice,
Praising Christ the blessed Savior with heart and with voice;
Tell Him how we came to love Him and make Him our choice,
That will be a glad reunion day.

When we live a million years in that wonderful place,
Basking in the love of Jesus, beholding His face,
It will seem but just a moment of praising His grace,
That will be a glad reunion day.

"The Last Mile Of The Way"

If I walk in the pathway of duty,
If I work till the close of the day,
I shall see the great King in His beauty,
When I've gone the last mile of the way.

REFRAIN:

When I've gone the last mile of the way,
I will rest at the close of the day;
And I know there are joys that await me,
When I've gone the last mile of the way.

If for Christ I proclaim the glad story,
If I seek for His sheep gone astray,
I am sure He will show me His glory,
When I've gone the last mile of the way.

Here the dearest of ties we must sever,
Tears of sorrow are seen every day;
But no sickness, no sighing forever,
When I've gone the last mile of the way.

"Sweet-By-And-By"

There's a land that is fair-er than day. And by faith we can see it a-far. For the Father waits over the way. To pre-pare us a dwelling place there.

REFRAIN:

In the sweet, by and by. We shall meet on that beautiful shore. In the sweet, by and by. We shall meet on that beautiful shore.

We shall sing on that beautiful shore. The melodious songs of the blest. And our spir-its shall sor-row no more. Not a sign for the blessings of rest.

To our boun-ti-ful Father a-bove. We will of-fer our trib-ute of praise. For the glo-ri-ous gift of His love. And the blessings that hallow our days.
