Graveside Hymns

When the Roll is Called Up Yonder

When the trumpet of the Lord shall sound and time shall be no more,
And the morning breaks, eternal, bright and fair;
When the saved of earth shall gather over on the other shore,
And the roll is called up yonder, I'll be there.

Chorus

When the roll is called up yonder,
When the roll is called up yonder,
When the roll is called up yonder,
When the roll is called up yonder, I'll be there.

On that bright and cloudless morning when the dead in Christ shall rise,
And the glory of his resurrection share;
When his chosen ones shall gather to their home beyond the skies,
And the roll is called up yonder, I'll be there.

Let us labor for the Master from the dawn till setting sun;
Let us talk of all his wondrous love and care.
Then when all of life is over and our work on earth is done,
And the roll is called up yonder, I'll be there

It is Well

When peace like a river attendeth my way,
when sorrows like sea billows roll;
whatever my lot, thou hast taught me to say,
"It is well, it is well with my soul."

Though Satan should buffet,
though trials should come,
let this blest assurance control:
that Christ has regarded my helpless estate,
and has shed his own blood for my soul.

Chorus

It is well with my soul;
it is well, it is well with my soul.

My sin oh, the bliss of this glorious thought!
my sin, not in part, but the whole,
is nailed to the cross, and I bear it no more;
praise the Lord, praise the Lord, O my soul!

O Lord, haste the day when
my faith shall be sight,
the clouds be rolled back as a scroll;
the trump shall resound
and the Lord shall descend;
even so, it is well with my soul.

Congregational Hymn.....My Jesus I Love Thee

My Jesus, I love thee, I know thou art mine; for thee all the follies of sin I resign; my gracious Redeemer, my Savior art thou; if ever I loved thee, my Jesus, 'tis now.	I love thee because thou hast first loved me and purchased my pardon on Calvary's tree; I love thee for wearing the thorns on thy brow; if ever I loved thee, my Jesus, 'tis now.
I'll love thee in life, I will love thee in death, and praise thee as long as thou lendest me breath, and say when the deathdew lies cold on my brow: If ever I loved thee, my Jesus, 'tis now.	In mansions of glory and endless delight, I'll ever adore thee in heaven so bright; I'll sing with the glittering crown on my brow:

SelectionGlad Reunion Day

There will be a happy meeting in Heaven, I know When we see the many loved ones we've known here below Gathered on that blessed hilltop with hearts all aglow That will be a glad reunion day.	When we live a million years in that wonderful place Basking in the love of Jesus, beholding His face It will seem but just a moment of praising His grace That will be a glad reunion day.
---	--

Chorus

Glad day, wonderful day,
Glad day, a glorious day
There with all the holy angels and loved ones to stay
That will be a glad reunion day.

“There is a time and a season for everything under the heavens...”

Ecclesiates 3:1-8

On the 23rd August 1964, the exceedingly great news of the bouncing baby boy, Terrance Prince Albert Hamilton’s birth was heralded through the cool lush green Kew Settlement, North Caicos. He was the pride and joy of his delighted parents; The late Emily Missick-Campbell and Stanley Hamilton. Terrance Prince Albert Hamilton attended the Kew Primary School; now the Hubert James Primary School. Thereafter, he migrated to Freeport, Grand Bahama. While in Freeport, he attended private school.

After spending time in Freeport, Terrance returned home and migrated to the capital, Grand Turk, to live with his aunt; the Late Remona Forbes. After being in Grand Turk, he decided to move South Caicos where he improved on his skill of diving and made it his life career. Terrance was a very friendly, industrious, individual, who was determined to succeed in life. He had dived for Conch, Lobster and Fish in the beautiful, tranquil waters of the TCI. When the fishing industry, in South Caicos, was not as vibrant; Terrance decided settle in Providenciales (Five Cays). He continued to work hard diving; purchasing his own boat (which he had named the Cat). Terrance Prince Albert Hamilton was loved by his family and friends. His bright smile was simply infectious.

Opening HymnJust a Little

Soon this life will all be over
And our pilgrimage will end,
Soon we'll take our heav'nly journey,
Be at home again with friends;
Heaven's gates are standing open,
Waiting for our entrance there,
Some sweet day we're going over,
All the beauties there to share.

Chorus

Just a little while to stay here,
Just a little while to wait,
Just a little while to labor
In the path that's always straight,
Just a little more of troubles,
In this low and sinful state,
Then we'll enter Heaven's portals,
Sweeping through the pearly gates.

Soon we'll see the light of morning
Then the new day will begin,
Soon we'll hear the Father calling,
"Come my children enter in;"
Then we'll hear a choir of angels,
Singing out the vict'ry song,
All our troubles will be ended
And we'll live with heaven's throng

Soon we'll meet again our loved ones
And we'll take them by the hand,
Soon we'll press them to our bosom
Over in the promised land;
Then we'll be at home forever,
Throughout all eternity,
What a blessed, blessed morning
That eternal morn will be!
